Praying in Color

Spend time with God in a meaningful and colorful way this Lenten season by joining the Women's Fellowship Praying in Color group.

Created by Sybil MacBeth, Praying in Color is "the intersection of prayer and doodling, a visual, active, meditative, and playful way to pray."

No artistic skill or prayer expertise required! Led by Elizabeth Sides and Laura Watson, Praying in Color will be offered as a series with in-person sessions and materials for participants to utilize on their own. In-person sessions:

FAITH IN THE CITY

EDUCATION AS A PUBLIC GOOD

How Are the Children?

Tuesday, Feb. 3 | Noon-1 PM

Wellness & Community Center

Leaders from Action4Equity and community partners will share the recently launched How Are the Children initiative, a bold challenge to invest in the organizations already doing the work of reaching young people and their families who are most impacted by poverty.

This coalition of youth-serving organizations will create a continuum of care for young people that supports healing, provides opportunity and interrupts cycles of senseless violence that has already claimed too many young lives.

Faith in the City meets in-person in the WCC Community Room at Knollwood Baptist Church. For more information, contact faithinthecitykbc@gmail.com.
