ADDITIONAL INFORMATION:

Rest Rooms: There are public restrooms available at the bus loading/unloading area near the rear of the Single Brothers' House and also behind the Boys' School at the corner of Main and Academy. There are NO public restrooms in the Single Brothers' House.

Accessibility: Candle Tea is held in the 1786 addition to the 1769 Single Brothers' House in Old Salem. Single Brothers' House is a National Historic Landmark. Unfortunately, this is not an ADA accessible building. Visitors will need to ascend several steps into the building and then will descend two sets of original staircases, one wooden with a turn and one stone with uneven surfaces. When the Tea is complete, visitors ascend several stone steps to exit the building in the back.

Cell Phones/Photography: We ask that you silence and/or turn off your phones during the Tea. Photography is permitted.
